I. PUBLIC HEARING

- A. Civic & Public Safety Committee: Sylvia Abram Outreach Person for CCRB
The CCRB is a City Agency Independent of the NYPD.
  1. They Investigate and Mitigate:
    - Allegations of Force

- Abuse of Authority
- Abusive Language
- Face to Face Police officer and the person encountered
- Frisk without sufficient Cause
- Section 20... Section 09 refusal to provide name rank and precinct-identification
- Discourteous Actions and Gestures

2. CCRB Guidelines

a. Stop Frisk and Search

Level 1 Request for Information—should be unbiased and credible

Level 2 Accusatory—Questions should be a founded suspicion

Level 3 Stop Reasonable Suspicion

- Crime Committed
- About to Commit a Crime
- Has Information on a Crime

b. Frisk

- Pat down of outer clothing
- Reasonable Suspension that You have a weapon
- Search is then conducted

c. Civilian Responsibility

1. Ask the Question clearly—Am I free to Leave? If the Officer Answers No. You are being temporarily detained.
2. How to file a Complaint with the CCRB?
800-341-2272 or WWW.NYC.Gov//CCRB or 100 Church Street on 10th floor

Question and Answer

After the face to face is done, what happens next?

Mediation is not on Police Officer Records. If you are displeased, you can send it back to CCRB. Note. Face to Face is voluntary by the officer. Additionally, you can always call back into the office for follow-up.

Sylvia Ancruu – Director of CCRB

Advised she cannot comment on pending investigations. Must be filed by observer to file and provide as much information.

Resident Question and Statement

Why are Community Affairs Officers Changing? It is good for the community that they stay their post. Our Community Officers are knowledgeable and we want them to stay.

CCRB Guidelines

d. CCRB General Info

1. The CCRB will record, investigate and mediate. Acting also as an information deposit to see data trends.

2. 100% of complaints filed involve 14% of Officers. CCRB finds face to face mediation to be successful.
3. If there is an incident of Police Officer Retaliation, it will be flagged as such.
